

POSTAL SAVINGS BANKS.

JUNE 7, 1910.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. DALZELL, from the Committee on Rules, submitted the following

REPORT.

[To accompany H. Res. No. 729.]

The Committee on Rules reported the following in lieu of House Resolution 725:

Resolved, That immediately upon the adoption of this resolution it shall be in order to consider in the House Senate bill 5876, entitled "An act to establish postal savings depositories for depositing savings at interest with the security of the Government for repayment thereof, and for other purposes," as amended and reported by the Committee on the Post-Office and Post-Roads; eight hours shall be allowed for general debate, which shall be confined to the bill, one-half of said time shall be controlled by the chairman of the Committee on the Post-Office and Post-Roads, and one-half by the senior minority member of said committee. At the conclusion of the general debate it shall be in order for the minority to offer an amendment to strike out all after the word "that" in the substitute amendment proposed by the Committee on the Post-Office and Post-Roads and insert a new text. Thereupon the previous question shall be considered as ordered on the minority's amendment to the substitute, on the substitute itself, and on the bill to final passage without delay, intervening motion, or appeal, except a motion to recommit.

O